Ms. Crawford:

You should also be aware that EPA has expressed interest in seeing the tanks removed because they are hindering cleanup of the Bremerton Gasworks Site. Kathy Parker EPA's Site Manager is currently working with Mrs. Sesko to find a way to remove the tanks from site.

Kathy's contact number is:

Ms. Crawford:

Thank you for your inquiry. DNR's claim in the Sesko probate has not been satisfied. Currently, two large tanks owned by the Seskos remain in the harbor area adjacent to the Sesko property on the Port Washington Narrows. I've attached a photograph of the tanks, a copy of an estimate DNR received for removal of the tanks from Global Diving & Salvage in 2010, and a Kitsap County Health District inspection report from 2009. Given the unknowns regarding the condition of the tanks, it is likely that DNR would opt for placing the tanks on barges to move them to a scrap yard in order to dispose of them. As set forth in the estimate, as of 2010, that option would likely cost in approximately $47,195.00 plus tax. DNR may claim additional amounts for trespass damages and costs pursuant to RCW 79.02.300.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Subject: Sesko - PRIORITY

Mr. Pruitt;

My name is Heather Crawford and I am the Guardian ad Litem for Natacha Sesko is a guardianship matter under Kitsap County Cause No. 13-4-00234-4. Find attached a copy of the order appointing me for your reference.

We are currently in trial and I have a time-sensitive question of which I would appreciate a priority response:

Has the Creditor's Claim filed by the Department of National Resources on April 7, 2005 in William Sesko's probate, Kitsap Cause No. 04-4-00770-3, been paid? If not, can you estimate the balance due and/or provide the status of the claim? Thank you.

Kind regards,

Heather L. Crawford
